Rockland, MA. 02370

On the above date & time, we received a report that a 10 yr. old youth was skateboarding home in the area of Woodland Place & Sycamore Court when he was reportedly chased by the subject featured on left, after the subject reportedly shouted, "hey kid, come over here."

The youth reported that he got scared and ran into a wooded area and hid. The youth reported that subject ran after him and he saw the subject looking for him in the woods.

After a few minutes, the subject walked away toward Pond St. After the youth lost sight of the subject, he reported that he ran home and told his father about the incident.

An immediate search for the subject had negative results. The Plymouth County Sheriff's Office was notified & completed a composite image of the subject, featured on left.
